

I do not want my telephone privacy violated by the Consumer's Bankers Association or any other organization which wants to solicit me for any reason. The purpose of this action is to solicit more consumer credit of which there is already too many excesses.

Please respect my right to privacy and deny this application regards,

Michael Deschler